Clemson University Libraries

Taking it to the Students:

Library Instruction Using Learning Management Systems

Tara Wood
Instruction & Outreach Archivist
tswood2@clemson.edu

Anne McMahan Grant
Instruction Coordinator/
History Reference Librarian
anne1@clemson.edu
Taking It To The Students (and faculty!)

- Pandemic & the Need for Flexible Instruction
  - The Catalyst: ENGL1030
  - Flexibility
  - Ease of Use
  - Streamlined
First Try: Using LibWizard

- Standalone tutorials
- Example:
  - Embedded video
  - Links
  - Attached Files
  - Exercises
  - Assessment Link
Beyond the Pandemic: Blended Learning

- Engaging, blended learning
- Pedagogical research on blended learning
Using the Learning Management System

- Going to the students & faculty
- Example: HIST4900
  - All customized
  - Available in Canvas Commons
The LMS & Other Library Resources

- Course Resource Lists
- Embedded Librarians
- Direct Links to Custom LibGuides
What the Future Holds: Realizing the Goal

• "Guide on the Side" vs. "Sage on the Stage"
• Opportunities:
  • More time for hands on
  • "One Stop Shop" for instructors
  • The case for embedded librarianship
• So does it work?
Questions, Comments?

• Contact us:
  • Tara S. Wood
twood2@clemson.edu

  • Anne McMahan Grant
anne1@clemson.edu