Beyond Our Stacks

Auburn University Dean of Libraries
Bonnie MacEwan
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

How did Auburn go from this.....
... and this ...
...to the new learning spaces we have today?
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

Media and Digital Resource Lab expansion
...the Learning Commons
Learning Commons
Study Commons
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

From this.....

Government Documents and Maps
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

... to this.

Study Commons
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

From this.....

Cataloging Work Area
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

From this.....

Cataloging Work Area
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

From this.....

Computer Lab
Adapting Existing Library Spaces to Meet New and Changing Needs

... to this.

Caroline Marshall Draughon Auditorium
Offsite Storage as a Collections Strategy and as an Ongoing Need for our Libraries

Closed Stacks on the ground floor

COMING SOON
Offsite Library Archive Facility (OLAF)
Branch Libraries

Library of Architecture, Design and Construction
New Learning Spaces On Campus

RBD Library entrance as it looks now
New Learning Spaces On Campus

Just inside the RBD Library main entrance as it looks now
New Learning Spaces On Campus

Mell Commons classroom building entrance
New Learning Spaces On Campus

RBD Library entrance as it will look from inside the Mell Commons classroom building
New Learning Spaces On Campus

Mell Commons classroom building and RBD Library 2nd floor
Staffing

- Change
- User Focus
- Partnerships
- Technology
- Staffing Levels
Staffing

Change
Staffing

User Focus
Staffing

Partnerships
Staffing

Technology
Staffing

Staffing Levels
QUESTIONS?