Many of these STATE DEPT documents are being PRESERVED in order to ensure access into the future.

Please contact Head of Preservation Services, Kara McClurken, with any questions:

VCU is a CoE for Homeland Security. Because it doesn't publish much in print it might be all the more important to collect and preserve what is available.

Hollins University, a traditionally women's college, chose to be a Center of Excellence for the Labor Department's Women's Bureau. One 1939 issue has an article entitled "Married Women Who Work." They are considering future digitization projects.
