

Summary of ASERL Group Purchasing / Discount Offers

As of November 20, 2017

AVON Streaming Video package from Alexander Street Press. Discounts 15%-25% depending on your library's other purchases with ASP. Custom quotes provided to each library. Contact your ASP rep for details. Available through December 31, 2017.
SAE Tech Papers, ebook collections, Standards/Historical Standards. 10% discounts for new subscribers, 15% if 2+ items are purchased. Existing SAE clients in ASERL will receive discounts if 5+ new purchases are made within ASERL. Pricing info available on "Collection Development" page of ASERL's website. Contact Gerri Brady at SAE for details or purchases. Available through December 27, 2017.
ORCID author identification system, via partnership with Greater Western Library Alliance. The "Premium" level of ORCID service available to ASERL members for $4,000/year, plus $80 administrative fee to GWLA. This represents an 84% discount off list price. See http://bit.ly/2yRglx9 for boilerplate terms & conditions. See http://www.aserl.org/2017/09/orcid-roadshow/ for more details on implementing ORCID. No closing date for this offer at this time.
EBSCO Ebooks. ASERL members receive 5% discount for any increases in purchasing over the library's previous year spend on EBSCO ebook purchases made via GOBI. Contact your EBSCO rep for more information. Available through June 30, 2018.
Backstage Library Works. Beginning mid-December 2017, ASERL members receive 8% discount of most services provided by BSLW, including non-English cataloging, MARC-RDA record conversion, ILS database migration, retrospective conversion, and digitization. Contact Beth Ann Goodwill at BSLW for more information. No closing date for this offer at this time.
Gale "Archives Unbound." Content bundles include Southern Studies, African American Studies, Southern Political, Religious, History and Culture Studies. Under development.
Independent Scholarly Publishing Group. Under development.

Questions? Please contact John Burger at jburger@aserl.org.