ASERL Special Pricing Opportunity

This is an exciting opportunity for ASERL members to take advantage of special pricing and discount ranges for three bundle packages from Adam Matthew.

These bundles will enable ASERL institutions to gain access to a plethora of valuable primary source content at a significantly discounted price.

Adam Matthew Bundle discount terms:

- This pricing is valid through December 31, 2019.
- Pricing is for three defined bundle options. Titles cannot be broken out for independent purchase at these price points.
- Libraries interested in participating are eligible to receive credit for previously purchased titles. *Capped credit values may apply.
- Pricing is exclusive for ASERL members.
- Pricing to purchase the entire Adam Matthew portfolio is available upon request.
- Hosting fees will be waived for purchases completed before June 15, 2019. For purchases after July 1, hosting fees can be paid annually (0.8% of the total purchase price) or as a one-time up front purchase (7.5% of the total purchase price).
- No minimum purchase required.
