The Montgomery Bus Boycott

The event that thrust Dr. King onto the national stage occurred soon after he had become a pastor in Montgomery, Alabama. Rosa Parks was arrested on the Cleveland Avenue bus for refusing to surrender her seat to a white man. The incident spurred a year-long boycott, led by Dr. King, in protest of the segregationist policy.

The Rosa Parks Museum (housed in the building just above the map marker at right) commemorates Ms. Parks and the boycott.
