ASERL Depository Coordinators

Post DLC Get-Together

Monday, December 7, 2020

Welcome!
Using the Webinar System

• Audio for all attendees is automatically muted

• Attendees can ask a question in two ways:
  – Enter text in “Questions” or “Chat” boxes
  – Raise your hand; moderator will temporarily un-mute your audio connection.

• Speakers on the agenda will be able to share their webcam – please do!
ASERL Code of Conduct

• No discrimination or harassment, in-person or online.
• Includes unwelcome or offensive verbal comments, nonverbal expressions, or behaviors.
• Report issues to ASERL staff or Board.
• Reports are confidential.
• Violators may be warned, sanctioned, or expelled.
• ASERL may also notify the accused person’s employer of the reported incident.
1. Welcome
   Renee Bosman, University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill

2. DLC Highlights
   • Programs of Note
   • Poster Sessions
   • DLC Council

3. Regional Sharing
   • Amy Laub-Carroll, University of Kentucky
   • Hayley Johnson, Louisiana State University
   • Perveen Rustomfram, University of Memphis
   • Renee Bosman, University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill

4. Open Mic
https://www.fdlp.gov/2020-fdl-conference
Programs of Note

• Mark Love, Nicholls State University (Louisiana) “Government Resources for the Oil & Gas Industry”

• Vicki Tate, University of South Alabama “DLC Digital Deposit Working Group Update” & “Fugitive Documents 101”

• Will Stringfellow, Vanderbilt University “DOIs, PURLs, URIs Oh My!” (DLC Purl Working Group update) & “Go Big, Even at Home: Large Project Management during COVID-19”

• Stephen Parks, Mississippi State Library “Unchartered Waters: Lessons Learned by Depository Libraries during the COVID-19 Pandemic”

• Elisabeth Garner & Sarah Dutton, University of North Carolina – Wilmington “Teleworking Student Assistants – What on Earth Can They Do from Home?”
• Amy Laub-Carroll, University of Kentucky “Present but not Accounted For: How the University of Kentucky Libraries Calculated the Size of the Uncataloged Portion of its Federal Depository Collection”

• Andrew Grace, East Carolina University “Rediscovering Your Federal Documents or How I learned to Stop Worrying & Love Docs”

• Jane Canfield, Pontifical Catholic University of Puerto Rico “Hot off the Press: Magazines, Newsletters & Bulletins Free from the Government”

• Jennifer Home, University of Kentucky “In the News: Promoting the Library’s Government Document Collection Using Current Events”

• Laurie Aycock, Kennesaw State University & Valerie Glenn, University of Georgia “Past, Present, Future – Georgia Depositories on the Path to Collaboration”

• Patricia Kenly and Bette Finn, Georgia Institute of Technology “Exploring the Universe of Technical Reports”
Depository Library Council Members from the Southeast

Renee Bosman
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
2020 - 2023

Stephen Parks
Mississippi State Library
2017 - 2021

Will Stringfellow
Vanderbilt University
2019 - 2022

Vicki Tate
University of South Alabama
2020 - 2023

Yvonne D. Williams
Memphis Public Library
2017 - 2021

DLC members are appointed by the GPO Director and serve three-year terms
Past Council Chairs

Mary Clark
The Library of Virginia
2019 - 2020

Hallie Pritchett
University of Georgia
2015 - 2016

William Sudduth
University of South Carolina
2006 - 2007

Barbie Selby
University of Virginia
2005 - 2006
DLC CHAIR
June 1, 2021 – May 31, 2022

Will Stringfellow
Coordinator of Government Documents
Central Library of the Jean & Alexander Heard Libraries

Vanderbilt University
Regional Information Sharing

• Amy Laub-Carroll, University of Kentucky
• Hayley Johnson, Louisiana State University
• Perveen Rustomfram, University of Memphis
• Renee Bosman, University of North Carolina – Chapel Hill
Open Mic
DLC Take-Aways/Announcements
Questions/Comments