

Being a librarian can be challenging. ASERL is your support network.

ASERL is the premier regional alliance for research libraries. Our members enjoy these benefits:

- Participate in unparalleled peer-to-peer trust networks, for people working in all levels and roles in research libraries
- Unlimited access to widely acclaimed professional development events and activities, including exclusive members-only events
- Unique resources to help with staff recruiting and retention
- Opportunities to showcase innovations underway in your libraries to a national audience
- Participation in large networks of shared print archives for serials and federal documents
- Support and mutual aid in case of operational disruptions
- Leadership opportunities with library professionals from around the region and across the country
- Unique member-only purchases and licensing offers
- Access to extraordinary library collections via enhanced, no-fee resource sharing
