

Vendor Response to ASERL Eleven License Review: De Gruyter

Vendor: De Gruyter

License Reviewed: General Agreement for the usage of De Gruyter databases, eBooks and eJournals

Date Reviewed: ASERL review April 24, 2024; vendor review July 2024

DeGruyter responded to the ASERL license review with the following comments on 7/22/2024:

Accessibility: The De Gruyter VPAT and accessibility statement is available online here.

Author Rights Retention: The De Gruyter repository policy for books can be found here and the repository policy for journal content can be found here.

Digital Rights Management: For the avoidance of doubt, we can confirm all De Gruyter platform content is DRM free.

Support For Open Access: De Gruyter has open access programs for both eBooks and journals, including our S2O program for journals and our University Press Library Open program for eBooks. More information on open access at De Gruyter can be found here.

User Privacy and Data Security: Details on De Gruyter's privacy policy and data security can be found here.